

Disability Recreation and Sports SA Match Fixing Policy

A Disability Recreation and Sports SA member must not directly or indirectly engage in any of the following conduct related to betting, match-fixing and corruption:

- a) bet, gamble or enter into any other form of financial speculation on any DRSSA event or game (whether or not you are participating in such game);
- b) induce or encourage any other person to bet, gamble or enter into any other form of financial speculation on any DRSSA event or to offer the facility for such bets to be placed;
- c) be a party to contriving or attempting to contrive the result of any game or the occurrence of any event in exchange for any benefit or reward;
- d) fail to attempt to perform to the best of your ability in any game for any reason whatsoever (including, in particular, owing to an arrangement relating to betting on the outcome of any game or on the occurrence of any event) other than for legitimate tactical reasons in relation to that game;
- e) induce or encourage any player not to attempt to perform to the best of the player's ability in any game for any reason whatsoever (including, in particular, owing to an arrangement relating to betting on the outcome of any game or on the occurrence of any event) other than for legitimate tactical reasons in relation to that game;
- f) for benefit or reward (whether for yourself or any other person), provide any information concerning a representative team or its members (including, without limitation, the team's actual or likely composition, the form or health of individual players or tactics), the status or possible outcome of any game or the possible occurrence of any event other than in connection with bona fide media interviews and commitments;
- g) engage in other form of corrupt conduct in relation to any game or event;
- h) fail to promptly disclose to the Executive Officer of DRSSA that you:
 - (i) have received an approach from another person to engage in conduct such as that described above; or
 - (ii) know or reasonably suspect that any current or former player or official has engaged in, or been approached to engage in, conduct such as that described above.
